By Hugh Nini

- For audiences interested in LGBTQ issues, civil rights, social justice, the history of photography, vernacular photography and portraiture - Exquisitely produced using the latest in digital photographic technology - Supported by a major national marketing, publicity and social media campaign, including a pre-publication awareness campaign already underway - Social media consumer advertising to follow publication - With a global launch planned for the Frankfurt Bookfair 2020 Loving: A Photographic Story of Men in Love, 1850-1950 portrays the history of romantic love between men in hundreds of moving and tender vernacular photographs taken between the years 1850 and 1950. This visual narrative of astonishing sensitivity brings to light an until-now-unpublished collection of hundreds of snapshots, portraits, and group photos taken in the most varied of contexts, both private and public. Taken when male partnerships were often illegal, the photos here were found at flea markets, in
