#1 Bestseller on Amazon Winner of over a dozen National and International Literary Awards Are you struggling with the loss of a beloved pet? Have painful feelings of grief or guilt overwhelmed you? The loss of a pet is not only heart wrenching it is often more difficult than anything else we have ever experienced. Your pet has been there for you through good times and bad. They are your best friend, your confidant, your buddy. When that final moment arrives and you must say goodbye, the world as you know it comes to an end. Everything changes and life going forward is now empty and so very lonely without them. They are gone forever it seems. Or are they? Questions burn in your mind as you wonder what happens to your pets after they die. Did I make the right choices? Is there another realm where they coexist with my other departed pets or human loved ones? Do the pets I've had to euthanize forgive me? Did they struggle or were they in pain? Was it their time to die? Did I let them go too
